DAUGHTERS OF PIONEERS.

Will Open Headquarters in This City During Conference.

The Daughters of the Pioneers are arranging to open their headquarters during conference, for the convenience of all visitors.

All descendants of pioneers who came here prior to, and including 1850, are eligible to membership. The initiation fee is 50 cents, and, as yet, there are no yearly dues.

There is an effort to so modify the eligibility clause that all those who came here prior to the advent of the railroad shall be considered pioneers. While others who know the heroism and sacrifice of many who came even after that would make the provision broader still.

There will be an informal meeting held at the headquarters on Friday, Oct. 6, immediately after the afternoon meeting. All members and friends, especially those from a distance, are cordially invited to be present. The register will be present during conference week.

The society is making a strong effort to establish itself in a substantial and fitting way, and when generous encouragement is given by those who can aid in this movement, they feel a deep sense of gratitude.

The following letter will explain it self.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 25. To Messrs. Dinwoody & Co.: Dear Sirs—We, the Daughters of the Pioneers, desire to express our warmest gratitude to you for the gift of one dozen chairs.

It is not alone the gift which we so heartily appreciate, but for more than that do we rejoice in the quick, kindly sympathy which is so precious to us in our present struggle to establish ourselves on a permanent basis. The purposes and intent of our labors lie, we assure you, as disinterested as was your spirit in answering so generously to our appeal.

We hope to prove ourselves worthy of the support and confidence of all our friends and well-wishers.

We beg to remain,
Yours Most Cordially,
SUSAN Y. GATES, President.
LILLIE LOVELAND MAESER, Secretary.
MRS. SARAH J. CANNON,
MRS. LILLIE PRATT REID,
MISS ANNIE LYNCH, Committee.

DELAYED BY WASHOUT.

Daughters of Pioneers Will Not Reach Here Until Midnight.

The Daughters of the Confederacy, due here this morning, and for whom local members of the organization had arranged a fine program, did not arrive as scheduled, and will not do so until midnight. The cause is a washout on the Rio Grande.

AMUSEMENTS.

That "conglomeration of the impossible in story, the whirlwind in acting, and the good, bad and indifferent in singing—sailing under the name of 'The Chaperone'—drew a good house at the Theater last night in spite of the dripping rain. The force of music comedy has been seen and described before, so it is only necessary to say at this time that it is well up to previous Mabel Wilco in its cast, and that the very pretty lady playing the head 'chaperone' should be allowed to do anything but to sing. The best music work of the night was done by Mr. Lydcher and Miss Goodwin, and by the chorus, which was good in spite of the childishness of the tenors.

"The Chaperone" will be seen for the last time this afternoon and evening.

LATE LOCALS.

Fifty teachers of the First Presbyterian Sunday school, held a banquet last evening in the basement of the church to discuss the school work. A pleasant evening was spent.

INCREASING THEIR BUSINESS.

During the past year the paint and glass business of G. F. Culmer & Co. of this city has increased with such rapidity that they have now incorporated under the name of the Culmer Paint & Glass Co. with capital stock fully paid, of $25,000.

From now on they will be able to carry a largely increased stock of goods, and will continue to be the distributors of the Acme line of mixed paints and painters' specialties, manufactured by the Acme White Lead & Color Works of Detroit, Mich.

This strictly up-to-date concern is really a continuation of the old firm of G. F. Culmer & Brother, established here in 1870, but they have never before been so well equipped as now to do full justice to the paint business. They are now in position to well handle both the wholesale and retail departments in this city and throughout the surrounding states. Their specialties will be mixed paints of the highest grade, oils, varnishes, brushes, stains, wall finishes, glass, asphaltum roofing and painters' supplies of every description.
